

iObservation Logon

www.EffectiveEducators.com

The image shows a screenshot of the iObservation login page. The page header includes the iObservation logo, the text "a division of Learning Sciences International", and the tagline "ADVANCING PROFESSIONAL GROWTH". The main content area is titled "Login" and contains the following elements:

- *Email Address: A text input field containing "pXXXXXXXXX@browardschools.com".
- *Password: Required (in red): A text input field containing "Same as before". To the right of the field is a "Forgot Password?" link and a red eye icon for toggling password visibility.
- Remember my email address
- First Time User?

Two blue arrows are overlaid on the form: one points to the "Forgot Password?" link, and the other points to the "First Time User?" link.
